The doors opening to a great deal this weekend

LEWIS Homes is throwing open the doors to a stunning showhome at its latest development in Coed Ely.

Following the huge success of the first phase at Meadows development at Tylcha Fach, Lewis Homes is inviting house-hunters to join them as they celebrate the launch on Saturday and Sunday, February 24 and 25.

Conveniently situated, close to major motorway and rail links and with easy access to both Cardiff to the east and Swansea to the west, The Meadows boasts a mix of two and three-bedroom properties, with prices starting from just £122,500.

As an added incentive for those wishing to take a closer look, the housebuilder is offering a 32-inch flatscreen television to the first two purchasers who reserve during the launch weekend and go on to complete.

Speaking about the launch, Lewis Homes director Marc Lewis said he was expecting a great deal of interest in the latest phase.

"As a company, we really do believe in adding value and with prices starting at just £122,500 for a two-bedroom home, I'd say we're pretty hard to beat. As well as that, The Meadows is in such a convenient location, with great shopping and leisure facilities close to Talbot Green and excellent transportation links.

"We launched the first phase at The Meadows without the aid of a showhome and interest was huge, with all sold in a very short space of time, so if that's anything to go by, it should be a pretty busy weekend."
