

New Homes Wales

and the South West

ISSUE 63

May 2008

Experience Counts for Lewis Homes

Tonyrefail-based Lewis Homes has strengthened its team with the appointment of sales consultant, Irene Heywood. With over 30 years' industry experience and having worked for high profile house builders, including Yorkshire-based Shepherd Homes and, most recently Barratt, Irene will be based at the company's popular Meadows development a Tylcha Fach, Coed Ely – a mixed development of 2,3,4 and 5 bedroom properties, all built to the highest specification. Speaking about her appointment, Irene, who is married with 2 grown up daughters, and lives in Bridgend, said she is very much looking forward to getting to grips with her new role. "I'd heard a lot about Lewis Homes before I joined and it was one of my former colleagues that actually introduced me to Marc Lewis so I feel really at home already.

"The company's going through some really exciting times and has a reputation for quality and the service it provides to potential purchasers, which is something I'm completely committed to.

"I've worked in the industry for more years than I care to remember, across the whole of the UK, so will be drawing on my experience and using the skills I've picked up along the way to add a new dimension here."

Lewis Homes director, Marc Lewis, said he was delighted to welcome Irene to the team.

"As a company, we're growing rapidly and it's really important we have good people in place to help us continue to take things forward.

"Irene has a wealth of experience and will be a real addition to our sales team – I'm looking forward to working with her as we continue to expand, while guaranteeing our purchasers the top quality service they have come to expect."